

The Way Southeast Arkansas Cares.

The United Way of Southeast Arkansas is a local organization run by local people serving the needs of local people. The people in charge are trustworthy volunteers that are well-known in Southeast Arkansas. Under their control, the United Way is dependable and reliable.

Local unpaid campaign volunteers raise the money. Then, local unpaid volunteers decide how and where the money will be spent. Every dollar stays right here in Southeast Arkansas. These gifts help more than 50,000 people each year.

The United Way continues to be the health and human services fundraising leader in Southeast Arkansas, as it has been for over 75 years – since 1947. You are encouraged to join this local effort – give and volunteer.
